Opening Remarks

First Reading

1 Corinthians 13:4-8a

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful; it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices in the right.

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends.

Exchange of Vows + Rings

Second Reading

Rainer Maria Rilke, translated by Stephen Mitchell

...once the realization is accepted that even between the closest people infinite distances exist, a marvelous living side-by-side can grow up for them, if they succeed in loving the expanse between them, which gives them the possibility of always seeing each other as a whole and before an immense sky.
